PRESS RELEASE

Date: October 1, 2015

Time: 2:45 PM

Subject: Interstate 70, Glenwood Canyon, hit-and-run fatality.

Identity of Deceased Male: Gavan Brouillette, 20 years old, of Glenwood Springs, CO.

On Wednesday September 30, 2015, at approximately 9:00 PM the Garfield County Coroner's Office responded to a single fatality on Interstate 70, near Bair Ranch, Glenwood Canyon, Garfield County. The decedent exited his vehicle after crashing into a guardrail. Evidence supports that he was hit by another vehicle while standing in the roadway.

The area of the fatality was not in a construction zone. The Colorado State Patrol is handling the investigation into the circumstances of the crashes.

An autopsy was performed and the cause of death is multiple injuries and the manner of death is accident. Toxicology to determine if alcohol or drugs will be considered as a significant condition contributing to death, will be performed and the results should be available in four to six weeks.

No further information will be released by the Garfield County Coroner's Office.

Respectfully,

Robert M. Glassmire
Garfield County Coroner
