CHAUTAUQUA: “An assembly for education and entertainment of adults by lectures, concerts and demonstrations which are held for several days.”

The Silt Historical Park emphasizes life as it was in the early 1900’s. During Chautauqua we have the park manned with storytellers and demonstrators to educate and entertain the public for two days. Thursday, May 9th, from 9 am to 4 pm is oriented towards the elementary school students of the area. The general public is welcome on Thursday but will find that on Friday 10th from 4 pm to 8 pm the experience will be more individualized.

SPECIAL THIS YEAR: On Friday we have rounded up some Dutch ovens for an authentic old west food tasting.!!
